

Word of the Week

Monday 29th October - Friday 1st November

Word of the Week: Confound

1 a : To make someone feel confused, especially by not behaving in the way they expect

1 b : To surprise someone, so that they are unable to explain or deal with a situation

Example: The complex puzzle will confound even the most intelligent person

